

L. Dennis Page

Prior to coming to Eastern North Carolina, Dennis Page served as the Administrative Bishop for the Church of God in Illinois and Northern New England (Maine - New Hampshire - Vermont). He also served as State Youth & Discipleship Director for the state of Western North Carolina, Alabama and Florida for a combined total of 20 years in state administration. His pastoral heart comes from the 15 years that he served as a successful pastor in Western North Carolina. He studied at East Coast Bible College, Lee University and Carolina University of Theology. He earned an Associate of Christian Education, Bachelor of Biblical Studies, Master of Christian Education and an Doctorate of Christian Education. He is also a certified Chaplain through the Church of God Chaplain's Commission. Bishop Page has served on the Church of God Publication Board, Smoky Mountain Children's Home Board of Directors and currently on the Care Division Board of Directors and N.C. Children's Home Board of Directors. He has been married to Judy for 38 years and they are the proud parents of two daughters, Ashley (Married to Jared Waldrop), and Allison (Married to John-Paul Burdashaw). He is "Papa" to six wonderful grand children.
