

Michael A. Ball is a fourth generation preacher and a third generation Church of God (Cleveland, TN) minister. Having grown up in a pastors home, ministry is all that Michael has ever known. Michael began his ministry as music minister at his home church and served in that capacity with his wife for ten years. During this time Michael recorded two CD's produced by "Gaither Home Coming Artist" Wesley Pritchard. Feeling the call to preach Michael began pursuing his licensing in the Church of God in 2009. On Sunday January 1st, 2011 Michael began his journey into full-time evangelistic work. Since then, his ministry has taken him throughout the United States. Michael has a passion to see the church revived, and the lost come to Christ. Not only is his preaching evangelistic, but he places a great emphasis on the need for a fresh Pentecostal experience throughout the church. His revivals are producing positive results of many saved, sanctified, baptized in the Holy Ghost and divinely healed. Michael is married to his lovely wife Sandra and together they have two wonderful children Hannah and Parker. They currently reside in LaGrange, NC.
