

Michael J. Stigile Bio

Reverend Michael J. Stigile is an Ordained Bishop in the Church of God and currently serves as the Administrative Bishop for the Eastern North Carolina Church of God State Office. Prior to this appointment, he served as Administrative Bishop for the Midlands Region, covering Iowa and Nebraska, as well as the state of Missouri. Bishop Stigile also served for 22 years as State Youth and Discipleship Director in multiple regions and states, including the Midlands, Arkansas, Mississippi, Eastern North Carolina, South Georgia, and Alabama. Earlier in his ministry, he served for 12 years in Delmarva-DC as a youth pastor, associate pastor, and senior pastor.

Throughout his ministry, Bishop Stigile has served the Church of God on various state and international boards. He currently serves on the Ministry to the Military Board, Publications Board, and Aboud Board. Known as a Kingdom dreamer and visionary, he is recognized for his strong administrative leadership, attention to detail, and passion for advancing ministry. His leadership has been instrumental in the renovation and improvement of conference center facilities, as well as production and operational enhancements in the states and regions where he has served. He is also an anointed preacher and teacher and has ministered at local, state, and international conferences.

Born in Newark, Delaware, Bishop Stigile is the son of Art and Jean Stigile and is the sixth of seven siblings. He attended Salem Community College on a full baseball scholarship, earning an Associate of Applied Science Degree in Drafting and Design Technology. He later worked as a Senior Draftsman for the DuPont Company before attending Lee University, where he earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Liberal Arts.

While at Lee University, he met his wife, Marcia, and they were married in 1985. Together, they have two sons: Mike Jr., married to Christina, and Matthew, married to Tori. They are also blessed with three beautiful granddaughters: Michaela, Isabella, and Mackenzie Grace. Bishop Stigile is a faithful husband, devoted father, and loving Papa.

In addition to ministry, he enjoys watching sports, playing golf, hunting, and building meaningful relationships with family and friends.
